Course Description: The Intern Leadership Development Course (ILDC) is a 5-day course for DA and Local interns.

ILDC teaches:

- The US Army organization and the intern's roles in it
- Personal learning style and how it supports the Army's leadership competencies of communication, team development, decision making, and professional ethics
- Team building and group dynamics
- Leadership styles that provide purpose, direction, motivation and when to use the appropriate
- Individual values and how they affect decisions and professional ethics

Course Requirements: Course completion is predicated on attendance at all training sessions and completion of all required homework.

Training Method(s): Because adults learn better by doing, the course is presented using the Experiential Learning Model and not the traditional classroom environment.

Special Notes: ILDC requires individual and group participation and interaction.

Dress: Participants are encouraged to wear casual clothes (blue jeans, slacks, tennis shoes, etc.) to facilitate comfortable participation in the numerous leadership exercises.

Enrollment Procedure: Supervisors or training coordinators should contact the course manager to obtain spaces for their organization's interns. A completed, signed DD Form 1556 must be faxed to the course manager (Fax (256) 876-3627/ DSN: 746-3627)

Note to Redstone Arsenal Interns: Initiating a training request in TIP (Training Information Program) does not secure a space in the course. You must contact the course manager for a space in the session and fax an approved DD form 1556.

Important Notice: Any participant may be excused from any portion of a training program that they feel conflicts with their religious beliefs or creates a high level of emotional response or psychological stress. Individuals that require special accommodations should contact the course manager listed above.
